A Message from Fr. Jim

Reflections on the Third Sunday of Lent

In today’s Gospel passage about the woman at the well Jesus demonstrates His compassion and understanding in dealing with a person who struggles with sin. Because of this encounter with Jesus the Samaritan woman’s life was changed forever. I think it is important for us to note what the Samaritan woman did after her encounter with Jesus at the well. The Gospel says, “The woman left her water jar and went into the town and said to the people, ‘Come see a man who told me everything I have done.’” The Gospel adds that the people left the town and went to meet Jesus. With a great deal of excitement and a newfound faith in her heart the woman spreads the good news about Jesus Christ.

This is a tremendous example for us to follow. We, too, should go and spread the word about our life in Jesus Christ the way the Samaritan woman did. We, too, should share with others what a difference our faith in Jesus Christ makes in our lives. We, too, should go off and share the Good News of Jesus with others. How can we do this? Last year’s Official Catholic Directory lists the population of Roman Catholics in the United States at 70 million people. If the statistics are correct roughly 15 million of these folks are inactive. In an average sized parish (about 1200 families) that translates into about 400 registered families who are not practicing their faith. These numbers are important for us to reflect on. Again, if the statistics are correct, two-thirds of all Catholics who eventually return to the Church do so because a friend or relative invited them to return.

Here is where our evangelization work lies. I’m sure we all know inactive Catholics who, through our Lenten sacrifices, examples and loving invitation, might find their way back to the Church again. All it takes is our desire to share the gift of our faith with others. This Lent we could do no better than to reach out to someone who may not yet know the joy and satisfaction of living a life of faith in the Roman Catholic Church.

I want to offer a word of gratitude to Fr. Phil Schoofs for leading the Parish Mission last week. What a wonderful experience it was. I am grateful to all of you who made this a priority in your faith lives and for all of those who worked behind the scenes to insure its success.

May the grace and peace of the holy season be with all of you!
Fr. Jim Volkert

- The balcony will be closed unless needed for large attendance. Please use the main level for seating at St. Mary.
- During weekday Masses at St. Charles and St. Mary, when the day school children are present, the entrances to church will be locked at the start of Mass, for the safety of the children.

More safety precautions maybe coming. We understand this may be an inconvenience for some, but these changes are made with the safety and security of our parishioners. Thank You for your cooperation.
