Thy Will Be Done

Sometimes the road is heavy, and sometimes the road is long.
And sometimes, Lord, this heart of mine is not so very strong.
But Thy will be done, Lord, Thy will be done.

Father, I do not ask You to take this cup from me.
I only ask Your guidance o'er paths I cannot see.
And Thy will be done, Lord, Thy will be done.

Now, Lord, I feel You near me,
I feel your guiding pow'r.
And I know You're standing by me through ev'ry passing hour.
And Thy will be done, Lord, Thy will be done.

Lyrics by Joyce Elaine Eilers

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

Please take note of the following from the April 1st Update from Father Jim:

*The Archbishop will live-stream the Holy Mass from the cathedral. A link will be found on our websites and on Facebook pages. We will also offer Sunday Mass on our websites and Facebook pages.

*Sadly, this is time when some are taking advantage of the situation and scamming people. I think there is a special place in the afterlife for people like this! Please do not respond to emails or texts from me or Fr. Sergio asking for gift cards or I-Tune cards. Also, Archbishop Listecki has informed us that these type of people are sending out requests in his name asking for money or gift cards. Please be very careful and aware that evil acts such as this cannot be quarantined.

I ask you again to please consult our parishes’ websites and Facebook pages for up to date information. I would also once again ask that you communicate with our elderly parishioners who do not have access to on-line information. Most importantly, please let the parish offices know if you are aware of someone who needs assistance with groceries, medication pick-up, etc.

Let us continue to hold each other in prayer. God bless you. Fr. Jim Volkert

Please pray for the health and safety of our brothers & sisters at our twinning parish St. Joseph Naggalama in Uganda.

Prayer to Mary, Health of the Sick

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus’ pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Mother of the Divine Physician, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. -Pope Francis 2020

Confession when a priest is not available
This habit of returning home “takes flesh in the Sacrament of Reconciliation”, the Pope explained.

“I know that many of you go to confession before Easter… Many will say to me: ‘But Father… I can’t leave the house and I want to make my peace with the Lord. I want Him to embrace me… How can I do that unless I find a priest?’.
Do what the catechism says. It’s very clear. If you don’t find a priest to go to confession, speak to God. He’s your Father. Tell Him the truth: ‘Lord, I did this and this. Pardon me.’ Ask His forgiveness with all your heart with an act of contrition, and promise Him, ‘afterward I will go to confession.’ You will return to God’s grace immediately. You yourself can draw near, as the catechism teaches us, to God’s forgiveness, without having a priest at hand.”

Return
At the end of his homily, the Pope expressed the hope that the word “return” might “echo in our ears today”.

“Return to your Daddy. Return to your Father. He’s waiting for you and He will throw a feast for you.”

Reminder from March 24. May we be more faithful followers of Jesus Christ as a result of living through these difficult days realizing that all of our trust and hope for a better tomorrow lies alone in Him.
