A Message from Fr. Jim . . .

Today we consider in a very special way how much our fathers mean to us. Sometimes we don’t always express our appreciation for the many “unseen” things our fathers do. Fathers have a special way of demonstrating and sharing their love and support, their carefulness and gentleness, their energies and enthusiasm. Let today be the day we tell our fathers how much they mean to us. Let us thank them for the ways they touch our lives. And most especially may the Lord continue to bless them and grant them years filled with good health, much happiness and wonderful memories that we will cherish for years to come.

Today we also thank God for all of our deceased fathers. May we show our love and appreciation for the gift of fatherhood they shared with us and we pray that they enjoy their great reward in heaven for helping us become the people we are today.

Happy Father’s Day!

God bless you always!

Father Jim Volkert

Confession when a priest is not available

Do what the catechism says. It’s very clear. If you don’t find a priest to go to confession, speak to God. He’s your Father. Tell Him the truth: ‘Lord, I did this and this. Pardon me.’ Ask His forgiveness with all your heart with an act of contrition, and promise Him, ‘afterward I will go to confession.’ You will return to God’s grace immediately. You yourself can draw near, as the catechism teaches us, to God’s forgiveness, without having a priest at hand.” -Pope Francis

Tri-Parish Mission Statement:
St. Charles Borromeo, St. Joseph, Immaculate Conception (St. Mary), united in proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ through His saving death and resurrection, by calling, forming and sending disciples to go out and make new disciples. As a people, we are called to encounter Jesus, and grow as disciples through the sacramental life of the church.

Act of Spiritual Communion: My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

Thank you to the group of parishioners who got ambitious and took on two projects at the cemetery. Thanks to the time and talent of Jim and Grace Vos and Pat and Red Smetana, the chapel was edged, bushes cleaned up and trimmed and the area was mulched. The chapel’s front step was also power washed. Thanks to Mike Smetana for getting a deal on almost 200 begonias, which were then planted at the front entry on State Street. Take a drive or walk and look for yourself.
