Many who heard Jesus were astonished. They said,

“Where did this man get all this? Is he not the carpenter, the son of Mary?”

WHAT THORN . . . ? The Holy Spirit from time to time draws the veil of silence across a particular passage of scripture. Paul's "thorn in the flesh" in today's second reading is one of those silent places, for Paul—much to the frustration of centuries of Christians—never tells us precisely what his thorn in the flesh is. His friends in Corinth most likely knew what he was referring to, which was enough for him. People have speculated that the thorn was anything from bad eyesight to rampant lust. But all this speculation misses the point, for in his weakness, Paul comes to know and live the paradox of the cross of Christ: it is in our weakness that God's greatest strength can be made manifest. When we are strong, we imagine the strength is ours; when we are weakest, we know that any strength or power we might have comes from God alone.

THE THORN OF SELF-DOUBT The neighbors and family of Jesus in Mark's Gospel passage today think that Jesus has a thorn: his dubious credentials to be a teacher in the synagogue or a worker of mighty deeds. Some of us might think that we have this "thorn" of insufficient qualifications to be witnesses for God's plan of salvation in Christ. Sometimes we use this imaginary "thorn" of ours to excuse ourselves from the challenging work of living "thy kingdom come" or to lead ourselves into a false humility about our inadequacy as disciples. We can learn a lesson from Jesus and Paul today. Each of us, in spite of physical or personal shortcomings or limitations (real or imagined), is called and chosen to be a messenger of the saving grace of God, each in our own way. Whether we are spouse, parent, child, student, worker, employer—whatever role we have in life, God can work in us and through us to be signs of grace for others. When we find ourselves afflicted with the thorn of self-doubt, let us use that weakness to find our strength in God, and through our faith in Christ, continue to proclaim the Good News of salvation. Today's Readings: Ezekiel 2:2-5; Psalm 123:1-4; 2 Corinthians 12:7-10; Mark 6:1-6

Free Subscription to FORMED.ORG
Please log into www.formed.org with password NBNCWY. Here you will find a plethora of information on our Catholic faith which includes Bible studies, movies, biographies and talks. Make use of this valuable tool for your faith formation. You can do it by yourself, family or friends. Our pick of the week is Lectio-Evangelization -- How is Jesus working in our lives to fulfill his call to evangelize? How are we called to respond in the midst of conflict, rejection, and outright persecution? There is no better place to look for guidance in the New Evangelization than the Acts of the Apostles. This chronicle of the Church in action gives us the blueprint for the life and mission of the Church today. In Evangelization and the Acts of the Apostles, Dr. Mary Healy combines Bible study with Church teaching and practical wisdom to show how modern Catholics can effectively impact people for Jesus Christ.

Tri-Parish Human Concerns Committee
Tri-parish Human Concerns Committee members agreed to cancel the July meeting and moved it to Wednesday, September 12 at 6:30-7:30 PM at St. Joseph. Sub-committees at all three parishes continue their important ministries and should prepare to report activities at the September meeting. Those wishing to learn more about Human Concerns ministry are welcome to attend, visit parish websites, or contact Jacki Scholze (763-4611).

Tri-Parish Sunday Morning REP
Tri-Parish Sunday Morning Religious Education Program: Looking forward to the 2018-2019 year we are in need of three volunteers to teach grades 3, 5 and 6. Team teachers are welcome. Being a catechist is a very important ministry. Our children need you. Classes are held in the St. Mary Grade School on Sunday mornings from 9:15 to 10:15 beginning September 17 and ending April 14. Please prayerfully consider joining us this year. If you have any questions please contact , Margie Robers, DRE at 661-9125 or mrobers@stmb.org. ALSO a reminder to parents of first graders. Please register your children this year, because in order to receive First Communion a child must have attended one year of religious instruction before joining the second grade First Reconciliation and Communion class. Registration forms will be available in August either online or by mail. Watch bulletin for details.

What is New in the Bookcase in Church?
There are books from the St. Mary library in a bookcase in the main entrance of church. Books will be changed every couple of weeks. Books this week include “Inactive Catholics; Why They Leave; Why They Return”, “What Makes Us Catholic”, “Mass Confusion; The Do's And Do Not's of Catholic Worship”, “1001 Reasons Why It Is Great To Be Catholic”, “Sharing Your Faith With Your Child”. There are also new books, dvd’s, cd's for you to sign out. Please cross off your name when you return items. Children’s books are on the bottom shelf and if used in church do not need to be checked out. We hope you look it over and find something of interest.

Please pray for the health and safety of our brothers & sisters in Uganda.
